

Graduate Assistant Eating Disorder Education
William Magee Center for Wellness Education
The University of Mississippi

Qualifications

Acceptance into the University of Mississippi Graduate School in pursuit of a Master's Degree in related field. Note: Students pursuing on-line graduate degree programs will not be eligible for a graduate assistantship. For a complete list of programs offered and application deadlines visit: <https://gradschool.olemiss.edu/apply-now/graduate-programs-and-deadlines/>

Duties & Essential Job Functions

Include but are not limited to:

- Develop and provide education to individuals on campus regarding eating disorders, campus resources, and eating disorder recovery
- Facilitate outreach to various campus communities and groups
- Develop and provide campus preventions efforts
- Facilitate healthy cooking classes/demonstrations
- Develop campus resources related to eating disorder treatment
- Oversee professional development program for continuing education related to eating disorders and recovery. Inclusive to application process, CE acquisition and closing application
- Day to day operations of prevention program, including budget and various administrative support as needed
- Coordinate and complete one special project per semester based on individual interests and skills

Salary Range

The position is a nine-month appointment with $11,500 stipend. Assistantship includes 100% tuition waiver plus 100% of nonresident fee and health insurance benefits.

Application Procedure

Interested applications should submit their cover letter, resume and list of three professional references to: Erin Cromeans; wellnessedu@olemiss.edu; 662-915-6543