

Graduate Assistant for Wellness Education
William Magee Center for Wellness Education
The University of Mississippi

Qualifications

Acceptance into the University of Mississippi Graduate School in pursuit of a Master's Degree in related field. Note: Students pursuing on-line graduate degree programs will not be eligible for a graduate assistantship. For a complete list of programs offered and application deadlines visit: <http://gradschool.olemiss.edu/apply-now/graduate-programs-and-deadlines/>

Duties & Essential Job Functions

Include but are not limited to:

- Assist the William Magee Center with planning, developing, implementing and evaluating of evidence based programs and initiatives
- Supervise, develop, and mentor student employees
- Assist with building, recruiting and maintaining Student Wellness Ambassadors
- Assist with development and marketing of online content and marketing materials
- Coordinate and complete one special project per semester based on individual interests and skills
- Keep social media and UMForum up to date
- Present health topics to EDHE classes and other populations upon request
- Continue research/education on current trends and development in wellness initiatives
- Serve as a liaison for the William Magee Center for Wellness Education
- Provide general administrative support as needed

Salary Range

The position is a nine-month appointment with $11,500 stipend. Assistantship includes 100% tuition waiver plus 100% of nonresident fee and health insurance benefits.

Application Procedure

Interested applicants should submit their cover letter, resume and list of three professional references to: Erin Cromeans; wellnessedu@olemiss.edu; 662-915-6543